Saif Ullah Advocate appeared on behalf of the public body.

1. Reply to the show cause notice has been received with the signature of the Vice Chancellor, Air University, explaining that multiple cases of the applicant were pending and the legal team could not appear due to misunderstanding, not due to any mala fide intentions. Now, instructions have been passed to the legal team to be more proactive and responsive in attending all judicial forums, including this Commission. Request is made for withdrawal of the notice. The explanation furnished by the Vice Chancellor, Air University is found satisfactory; hence, the show cause notice is withdrawn. The appeal already stands disposed of after sharing the required information with the appellant. No further proceedings are required.
