Appellant present in person. Malik Haroon Hameed Advocate appeared on behalf of the public body.

1. The appellant has sought certain information about a specific chartered accountancy firm. The public body has submitted its response today, taking the plea of Section 16(g) of the Right of Access to Information Act, 2017. Moreover, the learned counsel for the public body has stated that this record is not available with them and that it pertains to a private chartered accountancy firm.

2. The position was explained to the appellant, who has admitted and agreed to forgo his request.

3. In view of the above situation, and in view of Section 16(g) of the Right of Access to Information Act, 2017, the appeal stands disposed of. Copy of the order be sent to both the parties.

Appellant present in person. Malik Haroon Hameed Advocate appeared on behalf of the public body.

1. This appeal has also been lingering on for quite some time on the plea of the counsel of the respondent regarding non-appearance and submission of reply to the rejoinder.

2. In view of the delay, the file has been examined by the Commission again, starting from the information request, reply of the public body, and rejoinder of the appellant.

3. On examination of the information request, it has come to light that the appellant has sought certain documents which were placed before the investigation committee of ICAP.

4. The learned counsel states at the bar that the appellant was provided an opportunity to attend the proceedings through video link; however, he failed to do so, and hence his complaint was dropped. Therefore, as such, no documents exist with ICAP. As documents are not available with ICAP, how is it possible that these can be shared with the appellant?

5. In view of the position stated above, the appeal cannot be proceeded further and is disposed of. Copy of the order be sent to both the parties.
